

Eco Performance Award 2015: deadline for applications is 31 January

Sustainability award recognises heavy goods and own account transport companies

Ratingen, 12.01.2015. For the eighth time, on 4 May 2015, on the eve of the Transport Logistic fair in Munich, the Eco Performance Award will be presented. It recognises heavy goods and own account transport companies who are economically, ecologically and socially responsible and have adopted a comprehensive sustainability strategy. To provide interested parties and applicants with even better information, the website at www.eco-performance-award.com has been given a facelift. The application documents can be requested via an online form on the new website. The application deadline is 31 January 2015.
